

"I was always asked to give to United Way at work, but I never knew what they really did... until now. Camp iRock was the most rewarding experience I have ever known. Bailee is now much more confident and outgoing. She wants to read all the time."

Frankie Lawson
and granddaughter,
Bailee
Camp iRock Camper

864-850-7094 | www.uwpickens.org

GIVE. ADVOCATE. VOLUNTEER.

United Way
of Pickens County

"United Way's Financial Literacy classes teach you how to budget your money and to see what you really need to spend money on, and what you can cut out."

Ricky King
*Financial Literacy
Class Student*

864-850-7094 | www.uwpickens.org

GIVE. ADVOCATE. VOLUNTEER.

United Way
of Pickens County

“Serving on the United Way Impact Council has opened our eyes to critical community issues, and when your eyes are open, it makes you want to help more.”

Brian and Tracy Snyder
Community Basic Services Impact Council Members

864-850-7094 | www.uwpickens.org

GIVE. ADVOCATE. VOLUNTEER.

United Way
of Pickens County

“At work I may not be a hero.
At home I may not be a hero.
But at VITA I am a hero!”

John Mason
*Volunteer Income Tax
Assistance (VITA)
Program Volunteer*

864-850-7094 | www.uwpickens.org

GIVE. ADVOCATE. VOLUNTEER.

United Way
of Pickens County

"After the United Way Financial Literacy class on saving money, I opened a savings account and started putting aside money for the future. It really takes your stress away when you have something in savings."

Michelle Robinson
Financial Literacy
Class Student

864-850-7094 | www.uwpickens.org

GIVE. ADVOCATE. VOLUNTEER.

United Way
of Pickens County

“Together with United Way we fight for struggling readers to avoid summer slide and to strengthen their reading abilities through Camp iRock.”

Traci Boyles

*Director of Early Childhood
and Elementary Education, School District of Pickens County*

Alida Gardiner

Director of Operations, YMCA of Pickens County

864-850-7094 | www.uwpickens.org

GIVE. ADVOCATE. VOLUNTEER.

United Way
of Pickens County